GILA OFFICIALS TO FIGHT OUSTING

The Attorney General Says Their Terms Expire January 1—Pastor Resigns.

Globe, Ariz., Aug. 29.—The attorney general has transmitted a copy of an opinion written by him, to county attorney Johnson, holding that under the constitution, the tenure of office of justices of the peace and constables would expire upon January 1, 1913. Officials of Gila county interested have retained A. C. McKillop, a local attorney to take the case to the supreme court. The matter will come up for hearing on the pleadings before Judge Walter E. Shute, some time during the latter part of September.

Pastor Resigns.

Rev. J. S. Moody, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, has resigned the pastorate and will return to his former home in North Carolina. In his letter of resignation he expresses deep regret that he must relinquish his charge here but states that the high altitude is detrimental to his son's health. He will preach his farewell sermon Sunday morning, September 1.

While driving the horse of Mrs. K. W. Holbert became unmanageable and in attempting to control the animal, she and her infant child were thrown heavily to the ground, in falling she was able to protect the infant, although she herself received severe external injuries, which though painful will not incapacitate her.

Dave Gibson, of this city, has been admitted to the Pioneer's home at Prescott. Mr. Gibson is one of the oldest old timers of the district, having participated in many raids upon the Apaches when the famous Geronimo was at their head. The period of Mr. Gibson's activities as an Indian fighter was from about 1870 to 1887.

Held on Murder Charge.

Miguel Sanchez, who was arrested here upon the charge of murdering a man in Sonora, Mexico, has been held to bail by Justice Pratt in the sum of $10,000, pending arrangements by Mexican consuls at Tucson for the extradition of the fugitive. The Sonora police accuse Sanchez of murder, alleged to have been committed by him in that city sometime in July.

Ray Requa, an employee of the Arizona Eastern railroad, suffered a painful accident when a large bar fell upon his hand crushing it severely.

The fire that destroyed the Wellington saloon, and partially burned the Costello barber shop and City meat market, is believed to have been caused by a tramp carelessly throwing either a lighted match or cigarette upon the wooden floor of the saloon, in the rear.

The losses are covered by insurance. The burned building is to be torn down by the Masons next week city are in an extremely muddy condition, making travel quite difficult.

RESOLVED:—THAT, NO HOME KITCHEN IN THE CITY COULD POSSIBLY BE SO WELL EQUIPPED TO DO GOOD BAKING AS THIS BAKERY

IT COSTS MORE money to equip a bakery than is ever needed for the most up to date kitchen. This bakery makes it useless to try to do for yourself what can be done for you with far less expense—and without trouble or anxiety to you of any sort. We want you to try Buster Brown Bread one time, and afterward you'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are.
